SPORTS EXPECT SHORT LAY-OFF

They Give Mayor Thompson About a Month to Rescind His Closing Order.

ONLY HANDFUL ARE ANGRY

MOST BOSS GAMBLERS ARE JOYFUL OVER THE PROSPECT.

Mayor Ezra Thompson's order closing gambling was the subject of ribald comment yesterday in saloons, cigar stores and other places where gamblers are wont to congregate. The order did not come as a surprise to the wise ones, who knew perfectly well before Mayor Thompson qualified that one of his first moves would be to close gambling in order that it might be reopened under the patronage of the city administration and its privileges limited to the favorites of the administration.

Usually when a mayor closes gambling he is "cussed" with unanimity and fervor by everybody connected with the gambling business from the meek and lowly booster to the belted boss gambler. Not so in this case; the dealers, boosters and small fry who live from hand to mouth, to whom the question of a meal ticket is a serious consideration, naturally do not appreciate the fully as they should the grave question of diplomacy involved in the mayor's order, and the great political figures and acumen which he thinks he is exercising. All they can see is that "American" party diplomacy is threatening them a choice between short rations here or walking out of town.

Boss Gamblers Satisfied.

Most of the boss gamblers, however, are satisfied. Before the Thompson administration took charge the word was passed down the line that there would be a temporary close up, to be followed by a reorganization. Those who have assurances that they will be given "privileges" are delighted with the situation. The plan of the Thompson administration, in a brief, is declared to be as follows:

To reopen gambling behind locked doors and extend the gambling privilege to a favored few.

To cut out all games except roulette and faro, which means a great reduction in the expense of running a gambling house.

To abolish the system of monthly revenue to the city.

Under this plan the gamblers will be able to make much more money than they did under the Mayor's administration. The lapping off of fines, the reduction in the expense of conducting their houses and the abolition of much competition means untold profit to them, and instead of "cussing" Mayor Thompson they are blessing him.

Not Believed Serious.

Few yesterday pretended to believe that the close up will be permanent. Any man who went into the places frequented by gamblers and sporting men and expressed joy over the sudden "reform" movement of the mayor was laughed at. The only gloomy grumblers were the salaried men and the bosses who think that they are slated to be wiped out of business permanently.

Opinions differ as to when the signal to reopen behind closed doors will be given. The more optimistic think it will come within a week of the mayor's decree that reform era would not be quite that "raw," believe that the games will be kept closed a month, or at the outside, two months.

The number which will be allowed to operate under the Mayor's Thompson's last previous administration eight houses ran most of the time.

BINGHAM SCRAP OFF.

Kid Bennett Leaves for Home, Claiming His Father Was Ill.

The match between Kid Bennett and Ed Tero, scheduled to come off at Bingham next Thursday, has been called off by Manager Mary Clay. This pair had been training for some time and it was thought a scrap was in store for the night of the booming mining camp.

Clays wrote Hard Bean yesterday that Bennett is left suddenly for the city, Colo. where his father is ill, but some are of the opinion that it was a case of cold feet on the part of Bennett that caused him to leave for Colorado.

There has been training for the match in this city and it is said was in the best of condition for the go.

HUNTER GETS GOOD JOB.

Boulder Coach Goes to Northwestern Next Year.

Boulder, Colo., Jan. 11.—J. A. Hunter, who was assistant coach at the University of Colorado last year, has been offered the position of head coach at Northwestern university. Hunter was captain of Northwestern for three years and was the first assistant coach ever engaged at Colorado.

While here he showed himself to have thorough knowledge of the game. The University of Colorado extends him his best wishes and feels sure that he will bring Northwestern back to its old form. The position carries a salary of $2,000 a year, which is more than he received at Colorado.

OLD PEOPLE CONSTANT SUFFERERS

Most old people are great sufferers in winter. They are seldom free from pains or ailments of some description, because they are not as able to withstand the severity of the climate, with its damp, changing weather, as are their younger, more vigorous companions. Cold weather starts the old aches and pains; they suffer with chilly sensations, cold extremities, poor appetite and digestion, nervousness, sleeplessness and other afflictions peculiar to old age. With advancing years the strength and vitality of the system begin to decline. The heart action is weak and irregular, the blood becomes thin and sluggish in its circulation, and often some old blood taint that has lain dormant in the system for years begins to manifest itself. A wart or pimple becomes a troublesome sore or ulcer, skin diseases break out, or the slight rheumatic pains felt in younger days now cause sleepless nights and hours of agony. There is no reason why old age should not be healthy and free from disease if the blood is kept pure and the system strong, and this can be done with S. S. S. It is a medicine that is especially adapted to old people, because it is made entirely of roots, herbs and barks, selected for their purifying, healing and building-up properties, and is very mild and gentle in its action. S. S. S. warms and reinvigorates the sluggish blood so that it moves with more rapidity, and clears it of all impurities and poisons. As this rich, healthy stream circulates through the body every part of the system is built up, the appetite and digestion improve, the heart action increases and the diseases and discomforts of old age pass away. S. S. S. cures Rheumatism, Catarrh, Skin Diseases, Sores and Ulcers, and all troubles arising from diseased blood.

CONTEST THREE-CORNERED

Rival Tickets in Field for First Time in Choice of Commercial Club Officers.

Rivalry is to play a part in the Commercial club election this year for the first time. The election is for the choice of five members of the board of governors to serve for three years. Saturday, Jan. 13, is the day set for the contest, and the ballot box will be open from 6 to 10 o'clock in the evening. Hereafter five candidates have been selected by a committee, and these have been elected without opposition. This year it will be different. The constitution of the club gives any five members the right to name a ticket. Two such groups have taken advantage of this privilege this year with the result that there will be three tickets in the field election day.

The regular ticket is composed of Mayor Ezra Thompson, R. E. Miller, W. J. Halloran, W. H. Bantz and E. P. Macdonald. One of the independent tickets is composed of Colonel E. A. Wall, George D. Davidson, W. H. Bantz and E. P. Macdonald and Louis Cohn. The other independent ticket is composed of John P. Cobb, H. T. Weaver, L. L. Downing, Thomas Homer and Henry M. Crowther.

There is no feeling in the contest. The object of the contest is to stir up interest and eliminate cut-and-dried methods from the selection of officers of the club.

GREATER SPEED PROMISED

Father Time Will Be Annihilated at Ormond Beach This Year.

New York, Jan. 10.—Entries for the fourth annual international Ormond beach automobile races, which closed yesterday, show 22 individual competitors, with a total entry in all the classes of 108. The touring car, which figured in last year's tournament, has been eliminated, with the exception of the event in which the regular stock cars figure. In horsepower the entries this year show an increase of more than 25 per cent and for the first time in the history of the automobile racing world, cars of 200 and the other of 250 horsepower, will be seen in competition. From the point of number the foreign cars will be in the majority.

MOONLIGHT RABBIT HUNT

Three Idaho Hunters Make Big Kill With Thermometer Below Freezing.

While Utah rabbit hunters are doing so much talking these days on their ability to bowl a leather jack over a popgun it will be well to fit up and take notice of the way they bag bunnies in Idaho. On Friday last three Soda Springs nimrods were out for an evening's sport and in two and one-half hours managed to bring down 183 rabbits. The hunting was done by moonlight while the thermometer stood 10 degrees below freezing point.

The names of the hunters are John Fox, D. A. Woodall and Houston Bowlers.

TO INVESTIGATE "RUBE."

New York, Jan. 11.—The actions of Rube Waddell, the crack pitcher of the Philadelphia American league team, before and during the world's championship series, are likely to be made the subject of an investigation by the national baseball commission.

The American league magnates, and especially Sam Johnson, president of the organization, are highly incensed at Waddell's antics, and can't reconcile themselves to the feeling prevalent among supporters of the American league in Philadelphia that his innocent peculiarities should cover his sins.

Ever since the world's championship games rumors emanating from well authenticated sources said that Waddell had been approached by certain Philadelphia interests to either incapacitate himself for the contests in which his club was about to engage or throw the games in which he was to pitch.

SEVERAL GOOD SCORES

BY COMMERCIAL LEAGUE

The city league games between the Commercial league and the city league last evening were postponed.

In the Commercial league series several high scores were made. The best work of the evening, however, was bowled by Gyllenswan, who pulled down 159 score for the three games. The scores:

Gyllenswan .. 171 202 175—549
Hillins .. 159 180 215—554
Faddis .. 158 189 147—494
Schmieder .. 165 183 190—538
Burt .. 179 206 167—552

Totals .. 831 850—2642
Kilpatrick .. 158 180 215—554
W. Bingham .. 151 183 190—524
S. Taylor .. 158 189 147—494
H. Brewerton .. 171 202 175—549

FOOTBALL REFORMERS

IN SESSION AGAIN

Boston, Jan. 10.—The football reform question was discussed today at length by the board of overseers of Harvard. At the conclusion of the meeting the only statement made was that the matter had been considered. Former Governor John D. Long presided. Among those who called for a preliminary meeting was Overseer Samuel Hill of Seattle.

SPokane READY FOR MORE WAR

Williams and Lucas Preparing Extra Bright Color of War Paint This Year.

Spokane, Jan. 10.—Clyde Williams, owner of the Spokane team in the defunct Pacific National league, announced yesterday at a conference of baseball fans in Frank Smith's cigar store that he would place an outlaw team in Spokane next year if Portland and Seattle refuse to join the coast league. Mr. Williams said he is to revive the old league composed of the coast league, Portland and Spokane. The national commission has awarded this territory to W. H. Lucas Northwest league, but Mr. Williams declares that baseball magnates the coast towns have assured him that they will not ally their forces with Lucas again.

Whether or not Portland and Seattle will join the coast league again is the question that is now disturbing the baseball enthusiasts of the northwest. The Seattle Times says that the Seattle team have lost $40,000 on coast league baseball the last three years. Will Seattle continue in face of this financial punishment? Is the question now being asked. If not, Spokane seems slated for a baseball war within its gates. With two leagues hammering away at the ball parks here, there is no doubt that the city of Lucas also has a league.

BOTH FORMING LEAGUES

SALT LAKE IS ENTIRELY OVERLOOKED BY BOTH MAGNATES.

Chief Justice George W. Bartch yesterday filed his dissenting opinion in the case of A. Booth & Co., respondent, against G. M. Wiegand, appellant, in which he arraigns severely the majority opinion of Justices Straup and McCarty.

This is the case in which the supreme court reversed a former opinion and held that a contract made with a foreign corporation which had not complied with the laws of the state was binding on a citizen of Utah who might make such a contract.

Judge Bartch holds that under the opinion of the majority in the second question, foreign corporations, or individuals through foreign corporations, have advantages in the state which domestic corporations, or citizens desiring to transact business through domestic corporations do not possess. He permits foreign corporations to operate in the state without complying with the laws of the state or the fees required by the laws, and thus can establish and transact business on more favorable terms than domestic corporations which are organized under and comply with the state laws.

"This places persons who violate the law on more favorable footing than they who obey its mandates. Such is the sequence from the strange and strained construction of the majority placed upon the perspicuous language employed by our lawmakers," he says.

AFFIRMS THE JUDGMENT.

Supreme Court Has No Jurisdiction in Anderson Case.

In an opinion written by Judge J. A. Howell of the second district court, who sat in the case, the supreme court yesterday affirmed the judgment in the case of Anderson v. Anderson against H. H. Halhusen Mercantile Co. The case came up on an appeal from an order of the trial court granting a new trial. Counsel for the appellant, Anderson, did not contend that the appeal had been taken within the time prescribed by law, but that the court had waived its right to take advantage of the expiration of the time by agreeing to a stipulation that the parties in the case were unable to agree on the interpretation of the stipulation. Halhusen Mercantile Co. holds that the stipulation of appeal not having been filed within the period allowed by law, the higher court has no jurisdiction in the matter. The supreme court affirmed the judgment. Chief Justice Bartch and Justice McCarty concur in the opinion.

MRS. BUTZER GETS $2,000.

Judge Lewis Finds for the Widow in Insurance Case.

Judgment for Mrs. Esther Butzer for $2,000 against the Head Jurisdiction Woodmen of the World was rendered in Judge Lewis' court yesterday. Mrs. Butzer sued to recover the amount of an insurance policy for $2,000 held by her husband, Peter Butzer, who died insane at Elgin, Ill., about two years ago. Butzer's mother and brothers intervened in the case and set up that Butzer was insane when he married. The court found for the widow, allowing her the full amount of the policy without interest.

Affidavit Filed in Motion for New Tribune Suit.

N. H. Tanner, one of the attorneys for William R. Jones, Jr., in the latter's recent libel suit against the Salt Lake Tribune and others, yesterday filed in the district court an affidavit in support of Jones' motion for a new trial. The affidavit sets out that the manner in which the Tribune reported the proceedings during the trial prejudiced the public against the defendant.

SAY LAND IS RUINED.

Farmers Seek Damages Against Utah Copper Company.

Two suits were filed by persons owning land at the mouth of Bingham canyon against the Utah Copper company in the federal court yesterday. In both cases it is alleged, the company's operations have ruined the lands of the plaintiffs, causing them to be inundated with tailing refuse and poisoned water. The plaintiffs are Keeshan A. Beckstead, who sues for $3,500 and Elsie Peterson, who sues for $2,750.

TWO MEN ARE BANKRUPT.

Ask Federal Court to Relieve Them of Paying Debts.

Charles E. Ellis of Draper, Utah, filed a petition in bankruptcy in the federal court yesterday. He lists his liabilities at $2,000. He claims that his debts are all exempt from execution, at $675.

How to Exercise the Bowels

Your Intestines are lined inside with millions of little suckers, that draw the Nutrition out of food as it passes them.

But, if the food passes too slowly, it decays before it gets through. Then the little suckers draw Poison from it instead of Nutrition.

This Poison makes a Gas that injures your system more than the food should have nourished it.

You see, the food is Nourishment or Poison, just according to how long it stays in transit.

They do not waste any precious fluid of the Bowels, as Cathartics do.

They do not relax the Intestines by greasing them inside like Castor Oil or Glycerine.

They simply stimulate the Bowel Muscles to do their work naturally, comfortably, and nutritiously.

And, the Exercise these Bowel Muscles are thus forced to take, makes them stronger for the future, just as Exercise makes your arm stronger.

My CASCARET POCKET

The ural remedy for this delayed passage (called Constipation) is to take a big dose of Castor Oil.

It does not help the Cause of delay at a trifle.

It does slacken the Bowel-Muscles more than ever, and thus weakens them for their next task.

Another remedy is to take a strong Cathartic, like Salts, Calomel, Jalap, Phosphate of Sodium, Aperient Water, or any of these mixed.

What does the Cathartic do?

It merely flushes-out the Bowels with a waste of Digestive Juice, set flowing into the Intestines through the tiny suckers.

But, the Digestive Juice we waste in doing this today is needed for tomorrow's natural Digestion. We cannot afford to lose it.

That's why Cascarets are the only safe medicine for the bowels.

My WATCH POCKET

Cascarets are as safe to use constantly as they are pleasant to take.

They are purposely put up like candy, so you must eat them slowly and let them go down gradually with the saliva, which is in itself, a fine, natural Digestive.

They are put up purposely in thin, flat, round-cornered Enamel boxes, so they can be carried in a man's vest pocket, or in a woman's purse, all the time, without bulk or trouble.

Price 10c a box at all druggists.

Be very careful to get the genuine, made only by the Sterling Remedy Company and never sold in bulk. Every tablet stamped "CCC."
